Rev. Amy Kindred

Secret(s) of Letting Go

*Rosh Hashanah begins at sundown on Monday, September 22.
Recognizing that many Unitarian Universalists identify as Jewish, we pause this Sunday to share the power of letting go, that is, to pause for a time of introspection and atonement. What is it that you need to "lift from your heart" to begin again?*

Our Vision: An inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action.

Our Mission: To celebrate dignity and respect for all, nurture lifelong spiritual growth, act for justice and equality, and serve the wider community.

Hymn #414 "As You Leave This Friendly Place"

As you leave this friendly place,
love give light to ev'ry face;
may the kindness which you learn light your hearts till you return.

Hymn #400 "Shalom Havayreem"

Shalom, havayreem!
Shalom, havayreem!
Shalom, shalom!
L'hitraot, l'hitraot,
shalom, shalom.

Hymn #205 "Amazing Grace" (first 3 verses)

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.
