

The Unitarian Universalist of Clearwater Covenant of Right Relations

A covenant of right relations represents the promises we make about how we want to treat each other and serve the wider community. It is a set of guidelines to help us achieve our shared Vision of being an inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action. The intent of this covenant is to promote a respectful, meaningful, nurturing community while reducing misunderstanding and conflict.

We, Members, Friends and Staff of the Unitarian Universalists of Clearwater, aspire to abide by this covenant of right relations to create a beloved community informed by our UU Principles, inspired by our practice of loving-kindness and sustained by our friendships.

We build and serve our community with love and compassion developing meaningful, respectful relationships. We share our joys and concerns. We gladly broaden our circle of friends to include and welcome newcomers.

We come together in peace, sharing the belief in the inherent worth and dignity of all. We cherish our children as our future, promote our youth and honor the elders for the foundations they have built.

We are supportive of one another's self-development and spiritual growth, acknowledging that each person has a unique path and truth.

We are kind and considerate and we express loving gratitude. We speak kindly of all, especially of those who are not present.

We speak with care, listen appreciatively to each other, and assume others speak with good intentions. We help each other see possibilities inherent in viewpoints other than our own, truly welcoming and respecting the insights of others.

We are generous with our time, talents and treasures to encourage, include and inspire one another. We give help and comfort to friends and strangers in need.

We honor and uphold confidentiality and maintain healthy boundaries with each other. We are nonjudgmental, opening our hearts and minds to promote empathy and understanding.

We find ways to express and resolve our conflicts and misunderstandings. We speak directly and privately to those involved, listen with an open mind, make amends and practice apology and forgiveness. We engage in UUC's reconciliation practices as necessary.

We recognize this covenant as a living document and know we may review and adapt it to fit our changing needs and situations as we work together for justice, compassion and peace for all.
