Time, Talent and Treasure

These three are the gifts we offer our community. They are of equal value and form the foundation for our philosophy for honoring the worth and dignity of everyone. Why, on Pledge Sunday is this important?

Our Vision: An inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action.

Our Mission: To celebrate dignity and respect for all, nurture lifelong spiritual growth, act for justice and equality, and serve the wider community.

Chalice Lighting

Written by Rev. Rachael Hayes
Delivered by Margie Manning

We light our chalice this morning with our hearts turned to the work of our congregation.
We have inherited this institution from several generations of people who believed in the power of human beings to bear love into the world.
We carry this tradition
for those who find comfort, inspiration, and joy within its real and virtual spaces.
We tend the spark of imagination and hope for the world to come.

SUNDAY FLOWER DONATIONS

Today's flowers have been generously provided by Karen Simon, with this beautiful sentiment:

"These flowers are in honor of my brother, Humphrey Simon, my youngest brother. Humphrey passed away a year ago, wishing to celebrate the love we shared."

If you would like to supply the flowers for an upcoming Sunday service in honor of a special event or person in your life, please email Ana "Soledad" Vaquer at soledad.globalre@gmail.com. She will help you coordinate your contribution.

Hymn # 402 “From You, I Receive”

From you I receive,
to you I give,
together we share,
and from this we live.

Hymn # 414 “As You Leave This Friendly Place”

As you leave this friendly place,
love give light to ev’ry face;
may the kindness which you learn light your hearts till you return.

Hymn # 404 “What Give Can We Bring”

What gift can we bring, what present, what token?
What words can convey it, the joy of this day?
When grateful we come, remembering, rejoicing,
what song can we offer in honor and praise?

Give thanks for the past, for those who had vision,
who planted and watered so dreams could come true.
Give thanks for the now, for study, for worship,
for mission that bids us turn prayer into deed.

This gift we now bring, this present, this token,
these words can convey it, the joy of this day!
When grateful we come, remembering, rejoicing,
this song we now offer in honor and praise!
