Unitarian Universalists of Clearwater – June 14, 2026

Rev. Amy Kindred

Tats R Us

Unitarian Walt Whitman wrote a poem titled, “I Sing the Body Electric.” It is a celebration of the sacredness of physical existence. In this month of Pride, we take a moment to recognize the beauty of diversity, bodies of differing shapes and sizes, adorned with tattoos, scars or not.

Our Vision: An inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action.

Our Mission: To celebrate dignity and respect for all, nurture lifelong spiritual growth, act for justice and equality, and serve the wider community.

We light this chalice as a beacon of hope for those who have gathered here this day. For all who have ever walked through our doors, for those who may yet find this spiritual home, and for those whose paths will never come our way.

For all this, and for all those things we dare to hope and dream, we kindle our chalice flame this day.

Hymn # 414 “As You Leave This Friendly Place”

As you leave this friendly place,
love give light to ev’ry face;
may the kindness which you learn light your hearts till you return.

Hymn #131 “Love Will Guide Us”

Love will guide us, peace has tried us,
hope inside us will lead the way
on the road from greed to giving.
Love will guide us through the hard night.

If you cannot sing like angels,
if you cannot speak before thousands,
you can give from deep within you.
You can change the world with your love.

Love will guide us, peace has tried us,
hope inside us will lead the way
on the road from greed to giving.
Love will guide us through the hard night.

Hymn #391 “Voice Still and Small”

Voice still and small, deep inside all,
I hear you call, singing.
In storm and rain, sorrow and pain,
still we’ll remain singing.
Calming my fears, quenching my tears,
through all the years, singing.
