

Unitarian Universalists of Clearwater – October 26, 2025

The Best Way Out is Always Through UUC Congregational Town Hall Meeting

Supported by Rev. Amy Kindred and convened by The Financial Sustainability Team

Unitarian Universalists embrace the idea that the Spirit of Life cannot be defined. Its presence is not stuck in old texts but instead unfolds perpetually throughout time, from one generation to another. The challenge of each UU congregation is to prepare to remain relevant in the present and in the future. This is what UUC will be discussing this Sunday.

* Don't forget* Trunk or Treat is at 11:30 in the parking lot. Be ready to share treats with the little ones. At noon, it is Potluck Sunday in the Social Hall.

Our Vision: An inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action.

Our Mission: To celebrate dignity and respect for all, nurture lifelong spiritual growth, act for justice and equality, and serve the wider community.

Pre-Service Music

Welcome

Call to Worship

Written by Gautama Buddha
Delivered by Rev. Amy Kindred

What we do, say and think matters.

It is expressed in countless ways.

The Buddha said, "In the end, only three things matter: how much you loved, how gently you lived, and how gracefully you let go of things not meant for you."

Chalice Lighting

Delivered by Rev. Amy Kindred

Today, like everyday
May my words speak of peace,
My heart beat with hope
And the future held gently
in the palm of my hands.
