Chalice Lighting

“Living with Pride”
By Lori Gorga
Delivered by Judy Toth

We light our chalice flame
For those who furtively visited the bars, where nobody knows your name;
For the stonewall riot – and the fierce trans women who fought;
For the plague; which still takes far too many, too young, too soon.

So many gone. So many never lived to see
Out gay kids singing on TV
Our gay people serving in the military Marriage equality
Families formed by intention

We light our chalice flame for all these,
And for all our siblings of the rainbow,
Surviving,
Living life out,
In the open,
With Pride.

Opening Hymn #1053 "How Could Anyone"

How could anyone ever tell you
you were anything less than beautiful?
How could anyone ever tell you
you were less than whole?
How could anyone fail to notice that your loving is a miracle?
How deeply you're connected to my soul.

Hymn #414 "As You Leave this Friendly Place"

As you leave this friendly place,
love give light to ev'ry face;
may the kindness which you learn light your hearts till you return.

Closing Hymn #318 "We Would Be One"

We would be one as now we join in singing our hymn of love, to pledge ourselves anew to that high cause of greater understanding of who we are, and what in us is true.
We would be one in living for each other to show to all a new community.

We would be one in building for tomorrow
a nobler world than we have known today.
We would be one in searching for that meaning which bends our hearts and points us on our way.
As one, we pledge ourselves to greater service,
with love and justice, strive to make us free.
