Rev. Amy Kindred

Edict of Torda: Seed of Pluralism

A court preacher once said, "We need not think alike to love alike." In our American society filled with divisiveness and a push to make everyone conform to the same monotheistic religion, Unitarian Universalist's cherish and prefer diversity of spiritual understanding.

Our Vision: An inclusive religious community, a beacon for reason, meaning and bold social action.

Our Mission: To celebrate dignity and respect for all, nurture lifelong spiritual growth, act for justice and equality, and serve the wider community.

"Come, Come Whoever You Are"

Chalice Lighting

"People of Memory"
By Kimberlee Tomczak Carlson
Delivered by Sue Hand

We are a People of Memory.
As inheritors of our ancestors' legacy, we hold their stories tenderly.
Gleaning wisdom from diverse journeys; united in hope for the future.
Guide us to trust in love as we kindle this flame together.

Hymn #414 "As You Leave This Friendly Place"

As you leave this friendly place,
love give light to ev'ry face;
may the kindness which you learn light your hearts till you return.

Hymn #188 "Come, Come, Whoever You Are"

Come, come, whoever you are,
wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving.
Ours is no caravan of despair.
Come, yet again come.

Hymn #318 "We Would Be One"

We would be one as now we join in singing our hymn of love, to pledge ourselves anew to that high cause of greater understanding of who we are, and what in us is true.
We would be one in living for each other to show to all a new community.

We would be one in building for tomorrow
a nobler world than we have known today.
We would be one in searching for that meaning which bends our hearts and points us on our way.
As one, we pledge ourselves to greater service,
with love and justice, strive to make us free.
